Team Arbi Harnet in Asmara has just sent confirmation that general Sebhat Efreem the former minister of defense (current minister of mines) was yesterday shot in his home in Asmara.

The assailant is said to have been arrested. Following the incidence there wailing was heard from inside the compound where the general lived with his wife, according to people who were in the vicinity.

After spending some time at the Orotta hospital our sources are now hearing that there is a plan to send him abroad for treatment to his serious injuries.

General Sebhat has been sidelined from Isaias Afewerki's circle for quite some time our sources add.
