

Ahmed's Family insists

Again, to avoid any misunderstandings, we want to be extra clear

- 1) No book may be sold, donated, lent, or given to any company, organization or private individual WITHOUT OUR APPROVAL.

Several people have confirmed to us that the book has been distributed to individuals WITHOUT OUR KNOWLEDGE. We hereby officially declare that Ahmed's Family DID NOT receive any information regarding that the books were distributed, or to whom. We became aware of this the same way as everyone else: Via social media!

- 2) Send the books DIRECTLY FROM THE PRINTING TO OUR HOME ADDRESS. the book must NOT be launched without our approval. We, Ahmed's family, are the ONLY ones responsible for marketing and selling Ahmed's book.

The only thing we have received, so far, is a specimen printout, which came to us three days ago. We have received confirmation that the rest of the books are still in a print shop in Egypt.

The question is: Why has information to the public, through various social media, been published that the book is completed, even though it is not? Why misleading the public? Why not follow our terms?

- 3) Threats have been received by phone and text message. That's an issue the police must deal with.
- 4) We have also received positive feedback and support from people, for which we are very grateful!
- 5) Unfortunately, due to high pressure on our telephone line, we cannot answer all incoming calls. Instead, you may reach us via email: FamilyAhmed2019@outlook.com. We will respond to all emails as soon as we can, but please excuse us that it may take some time!
- 6) As soon as there will be any news on this matter, we will publish them on the website: www.togoruba.org

Thank you for your patience and forbearance!
