

The Ethio-Eritrea Peace Process

Eritrean Education and Publication Trust (EEPT) would like to invite you for a Panel Discussion on the Ethio-Eritrea Peace Process.

Panelists will include:-

1. Mr. Martin Plaut is a former Africa editor on BBC, now with the Commonwealth Institute. Martin has written a number of books including the one entitled "Understanding Eritrea: Inside Africa's Most Repressive State." Martin is a tireless fighter for human rights.
2. Mrs. Selam Kidane is one of the most visible Eritrean human rights advocates. She has just finished her PhD and works for the National Health Service in London.
3. Mr. Abdulrahman Sayid is a known political commentator and a campaigner for justice. Bohashim as his friends call him is now a Director of the Al Manar Mosque, North Kensington.
4. Mr. Jason Mosley-research associate, African Studies, Oxford University, and Managing Editor of the Journal of Eastern African Studies. He is also a fellow at Chatham House.

Venue: Initiatives of Change

Initiatives of Change, 24 Greencoat Place, Victoria, London SW1P 1RD

Date: - Sunday 3rd February 2019; Time: - From 2:30PM to 6:00PM

Committee Eritrean Education and Publication Trust