Members of Executive Office of People's Party, Mr. Meghsteab Asmerom and Mr. Mohamed Ali Ibrahim, held an open public meeting in Addis Ababa on August 7, 2008.

The objective of the meeting was two folds: one to explain the outcome of the First & Constitutional Congress of the People's Party and two to update the public on the agreements reached between People's Party and Eritrean Democratic Party on August 23 & 24, in Frankfurt, Germany.

In this meeting, members of the Executive Office elaborated and discussed in detail the ratified political and organizational programs in addition to the adopted political resolutions and organizational structure of the People's Party. In the same way, Mr. Menghsteab and Mr. Mohammed also thoroughly discussed the agreements reached between EPP and EDP.

At the end of the meeting, members of the Executive Office answered questions and concerns raised by the public. They also called upon the public to play their roles on the ongoing struggle.

Following the public meeting, members of People's Party held their own session and decided to implement the congress' resolutions by organizing themselves into three units.
