

News Update #2

The Workshops of the Eritrean National Congress for Democratic Change
Finished Debating Political Papers

November 27, 2011

With great anticipation and joy the Eritrean National Congress delegates finished their workshops today. The Secretariat, today, also created a Compiling Committee that collects and assembles the comments of the workshops for final approval by the National Congress.

Yesterday and today, the facilitators of the seven workshops collected the changes, additions, comments and feedbacks that resulted from the deliberations of the four political papers for compilation by the Secretariat's Compiling Committee. At the conclusion of each of the workshops the delegates congratulated each other and thanked their facilitators for their great accomplishments. It should be noted, that, at the start of the workshop, the facilitators including the coordinators, secretaries and translators were selected from within each of the workshops to facilitate the workshop.

By late afternoon today the Compiling Committee started its work to gather the comments from the workshops. At the conclusion of its work, the committee will present its compilations for review by the Secretariat, which will then be presented to the full body of the congress for approval. It is awaited with great anticipation that the national congress will deliberate and approve the final documents at its meeting tomorrow.
