

ደሜቅ ዘ ወደ (demek Zewde) is a Donkey,
so is Isaias Afewerki, too Big for his hoofs!

There is this disorder scientist call a Zoanthropy. A person believes s/he is an animal in the likes of a wolf in a sheep's closing. There is nothing one can do to convince such a person that s/he is not what s/he thinks.

That said Demeke Zewde is a donkey. He likes to cavort in circle, kick and frat in public. Let him be what he wishes to be - a donkey. There is nothing to say, except to pray that the Almighty God purveys what Demek wishes to be granted without further sway.

One needs to be forewarned though that one is to stay away from such a character not to be impacted either by way of predisposition/brainwashing and/or coercion.

Such people have nothing good to offer except pain and stress. Anyone who wishes to erase his or her identity would definitely go against those who are close to him and his personality trait, including family members who begs to differ, in the hope that there is no trace left to identify of his or her original personality so as to help boost his newly acquired self-image, just as the colonial identity "Eritrianism" would want to eliminate its root of Tigyanism from the face of the Earth so as it would be able to peddle its new identity in peace without being reminded of its past.

Demeke and Essayas' Eritreans are zoanthropic psychopaths who in the end are no good to their own well-being let alone to others.

To be fair for the Eritreans, Eritreanism was foisted and brutally imposed on the people to gradually accept it as their own. In that sense Isaiss' Eritreans are different from አይተ ዘ ወደ (Ayte Zewde's) pedigree! The question to ask: why they failed to fight and reject It?

To claim what one is absolutely not is not only embarrassing but equally dangerous.

The Nazist believed they shared nothing in common with the rest of human beings, that they were special, supper humans destined to remain pure and uncontaminated. In the end they were brought down and ridiculed largely aided of their own making. Remember this!
