PRINCIPLES OF THE ERITREAN NATIONAL FRONT FOR JUSTICE

The Eritrean National Front for Justice, ENFJ, has its roots on the Eritrean Youth Movement for Democracy and Freedom, EYMDL, a merger of two Eritrean youth groups. The gradual expansion of EYMDL and to constitute various social layers of the Eritrean society has demanded revision of its structure. Consequently, the central committee of the EYMDL convened last October to assess the progress of the movement and passed a resolution to consider the developments. One of the deliberations is to change the name to the Eritrean National Front for Justice (ENFJ) as of October 22, 2022.

Our vision

- Ensuring that future governance structure is founded on the Eritrean people's values,
- Guaranteeing that human dignity and rights of citizens are respected,
- Building a country that is at peace with itself, its neighbours and the rest of the world,
- Advancing a democratic and prosperous country instituted on firm democratic foundations.

Who we are

- The ENFJ is a people's political force established to ensure the sovereignty of the Eritrean people and protect the interests of the Eritrean state.
- The ENFJ has critically evaluated the destructive nature of the military rule in our country and aims to bring an end to that rule and find a national solution based on clear political foundation, identity, vision, principles and objectives.
- The ENFJ is a people's force that is composed of the heroic children of the noble Eritrean people who have paid all kinds of sacrifices for the people and the country.
- The ENFJ sees itself as the link between the struggles of generations of the Eritrean people. It has a strong principle enshrined in the diversity and equality of the Eritrean people and thrives to ensure equal participation of all Eritreans in the affairs of their country.
- After flourishing clandestinely inside the country, the ENFJ has now reached a level where it has substantially expanded its presence and leadership inside and outside Eritrea. It is a front whose organization and structure are deeply embedded in the people.

Our foundation

- The ENFJ strongly recognizes the heavy sacrifices paid by the people of Eritrea to preserve and promote their sovereignty, identity, culture, customs, laws and governance, heritage and land; and the political and armed struggle they successfully waged to rid their country of occupying foreign forces forever.
- The people of Eritrea have been able to accomplish this history not only because they own and maintain a noble culture of heroism but also because they identified common goals and paid a lofty sacrifice price to achieve them.
- As the national force of this generation, ENFJ considers itself the heir and continuation of this treasured historical heritage of the people of Eritrea. Guided by the spirit of heroism and the history of past generations, it has set out with full confidence to confront and defeat oppression and violence regardless of its source and form.

Our main objectives

- The ENFJ is a national front that is set out to assume its generational responsibility to defeat violence and oppression and establish political governance by the people, for the people and for the people that is founded on peace, prosperity and social justice.
- The ENFJ aims to establish a constitutional government that reflects the values, history, expectations and aspirations of the people of Eritrea.

Our priorities

- Removing the dictator that has seized power illegally, first and foremost.
- Reaffirming national sovereignty and our people's unity.
- Establishing a stable and peaceful political transition process that ensures the participation of all sections of Eritrean society.
- The ENFJ shall hand over power to a freely elected constitutional government. Once this task is accomplished, it will disband itself as a front.
